30. PORTFOLIO HOLDERS' QUESTION TIME.

Question from: Cllr D Harrison to Cllr Mrs Brooks, Leisure, Culture and Youth Matters Portfolio Holder

“Great damage has been done to the reputation of this Council by what has become widely known as the ‘Slippery Floor Fiasco’. The District Auditor did not establish who was responsible for making the key decisions which resulted in the loss of over £300,000 of taxpayers’ money. Most Council members were completely unaware of what was happening behind the scenes and recognise that there are still questions that remain unanswered. Would it not be in the best interests of this Council and the public it serves, to agree to a proper independent inquiry?”

Answer:

The Portfolio Holder reminded members that the Council had carried out a very open and public review of this issue. A detailed report had been presented to a special joint meeting of two Review Panels. This had been held in public and the findings were a public document.

The independent Audit Commission had undertaken a detailed review and the District Auditor had presented his findings to a joint meeting of the Standards Committee and the Final Accounts Committee. This meeting had also been held in public and the minutes were a public document.

The Corporate Overview Panel would be considering a report at their November meeting to review the actions implemented to improve Council processes and systems. This would be a public meeting.

It was not in the best interests of the taxpayers for the Council to continue to use its resources to undertake further reviews on a matter which had been very publicly and independently scrutinised.

The Portfolio Holder suggested that if members were genuinely concerned about the reputation of the Council, notice be taken of the comments made by the District Auditor at the Final Accounts meeting, which placed the Council’s performance in the premier division of Local Authorities in the way that it used and managed its resources to deliver value for money services to residents of the New Forest.

In response to a supplementary question as to whether the Council was being complacent in not holding an independent inquiry, the Portfolio Holder disagreed and stated that the matter had been scrutinised in public at various meetings. The Corporate Overview Panel in November would be reviewing the action plan arising from the internal investigation to ensure that appropriate processes were in place to avoid similar situations in the future.

31. MEMBERSHIP OF COMMITTEES AND PANELS.

No proposed changes were reported.
